First Presbyterian Church of Topeka to Hold Ash Wednesday Service

FPC embraces mission and welcomes community, neighbors to mark the beginning of Lent

March 4, 2019, Topeka—The First Presbyterian Church of Topeka will hold a short Ash Wednesday Service at 12 p.m., Wednesday, March 6, to mark the beginning of Lent. The worship, which will be led by Pastor Sandra Brown and Pat Yancey, will include the imposition of ashes. Receiving the imposition of ashes is optional for attendees.

“All in the community are invited and welcome to attend, regardless of denomination,” Pastor Sandra Brown said. “All who seek Christ are welcome here. Come as you are and begin the season of repentance with us.”

Ash Wednesday marks the start of Lent, a season of reflection and repentance leading up to Easter Sunday.

The First Presbyterian Church of Topeka is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA). As a church family, we seek to glorify God and love our neighbors as we love ourselves. To learn more, visit www.fpctopeka.org.
